FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

Travel Tips for Flying

By Stephanie Turner, CTC

President & CEO, Brentwood Travel

I've been traveling for years and I've acquired a variety of tips that often help make flying easier and more comfortable. To help you on your next flight I've listed a few of my suggestions:

BEFORE YOU GO

- Pre-purchase your seat assignments so you don't get stuck in between two strangers, especially for a longer flight. It's worth it to have a window or aisle seat. If you can go one step further, pay to upgrade to comfort class or premium economy with extra seating and leg room. It will make a huge difference!
- Make sure your passport or security documentation is UP TO DATE and your name is correct, both first and last name. Your passport may be different than what's on your driver's license so be sure to talk to your Travel Consultant about this.
- Dress comfortably for your flight – but always so you're presentable and clean.
- Get to the airport EARLY. You don't know how crowded security may be or what can occur. It's better to be waiting comfortably through security than stressing in a long line with little time to spare. I try to get to the airport 90 minutes before a domestic flight and 2 to 3 hours before an international flight.

WHAT TO PACK IN YOUR CARRY-ON/PERSONAL ITEM

- A change of clothes with at least an extra top and undergarments.
- Small toiletries like toothbrush/ toothpaste and lotions (limited to 3.4 ounces or less per item).
- Enough medication to last you a few days.
- A few snacks. I like to take fruit, nuts or small sandwiches.
- Socks or slippers to change into once seated.
- Sanitizing wipes for hands and trays – planes are dirty and full of germs!
- Your favorite reading matter, music, headphones or a couple of great movies that make the time fly by.
- Extra battery charger (many planes now have plugs for USBs, but there is no guarantee).

Lastly, be sure to keep your sense of humor. Travel is such a great experience, but the act of getting there can often test our patience, particularly on long journeys. Just remember, it's the end result that's worth it!

Bucket List Destinations with GLOBUS

The Trulli of Alberobello

Have you ever considered the destinations on your bucket list? With so many incredible places to see it can be difficult to narrow them down. For over 90 years GLOBUS has been showing people the world, and they want to take you on your next bucket list trip. On your once-in-a-lifetime adventure you'll stay in city-center hotels and be shown unbelievable destinations with experienced tour guides. Multiple meals are included (some even experiential), plus you get the perfect balance of escorted tours with time to explore on your own. We've outlined four phenomenal Globus itineraries that need to be on your bucket list – that is, if they aren't already!

EMERALD ISLE

Discover Ireland on a 10-day escorted journey with overnight stays in Dublin, Ballina, Galway, Limerick, Tralee and Waterford – with so much to see in between! Enjoy the spectacular 668-foot Cliffs of Moher on Ireland's west coast, drive the Ring of Kerry (a 100-mile panoramic drive), admire the historical Kilemore Abbey and explore the breathtaking Aran Islands.

Grand Canyon National Park

HIDDEN TREASURES OF SOUTHERN ITALY

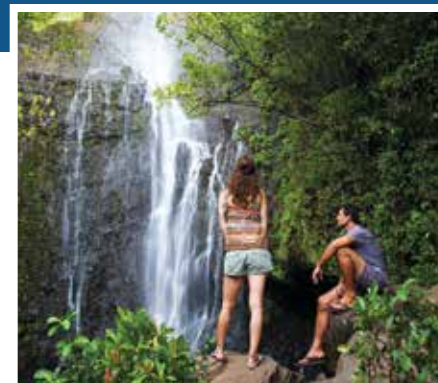

Do you enjoy seeing UNESCO World Heritage Sites? On this 9-day tour you'll visit sites including the Archaeological Sites of Paestum, Castel del Monte, Historic Centre of Naples and the Trulli of Alberobello. As you explore Italy's "boot" you'll have overnight stays in Naples, Bari, Cellino San Marco, Castellana Grotte and Sorrento.

CANYON COUNTRY ADVENTURE

You won't even need to venture across the sea for this tour! Journey through some of the most incredible landscapes of the United States during an 8-day adventure from Scottsdale to Las Vegas. Be inspired while trekking through Oak Creek Canyon, Monument Valley, Lake Powell, Antelope Slot Canyon, Bryce Canyon National Park, Zion National Park, plus stay the night inside the iconic Grand Canyon National Park.

GRAND HAWAIIAN VACATION

Spend 13 days hopping between Hawaii's gorgeous islands with a mixture of escorted tours and time at your leisure. Globus will take you to spectacular sites like Waimea Canyon (the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific"), the Kona Coffee Living History Farm and the Kilauea Crater at Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. In your free time, consider a humpback whale watching cruise in Maui, a zipline adventure in Kauai or a sunset cruise with Hawaiian cocktails along the Waikiki coastline.

Maui, Hawaii

Want to learn about more bucket list destinations with GLOBUS? Join us for a free event on August 29th at Cyrano's Café! More information can be found on page 31 of this Travel World.

Dreams Sands Cancun Resort & Spa with APPLE VACATIONS 15 YEARS

Lindsay and Nick, clients of Travel Consultant Christine Hakenjos, traveled to Cancun, Mexico with APPLE VACATIONS for a 5-night, Unlimited Luxury® vacation at Dreams Sands Cancun Resort & Spa. We asked them to share trip highlights and thoughts on their stay. Get ready to pack your bags because you will want to fly out to Mexico tomorrow!

BT: What was the overall “vibe” of Dreams Sands Cancun Resort & Spa?

L&N: There was a good mix of adults and families, it never felt too kid-friendly or too adults-only. The beach was serene and peaceful and there was an authentic Mexican performance every night during dinner. We saw Aztec fire dancers, a Mexican opera performance and a Caballero lasso show.

BT: What kind of room did you stay in?

L&N: We stayed in the Preferred Club Honeymoon Suite. It had a private shower, a massive private balcony featuring a Jacuzzi hot tub, dining table, and a covered cabana overlooking the beach below. The mini fridge in the room was free and restocked daily with snacks, water bottles, soda and liquor. With the beach less than a minute walk away, it was nothing short of incredible!

BT: What were your thoughts about the food?

L&N: The food was excellent. There were so many options – an amazing breakfast buffet every day, a Japanese sushi restaurant that we loved, and French and Mediterranean restaurants. We didn't even get a chance to try them all! We also had room service delivered to us multiple times, which was always presented beautifully.

BT: What did you think of the service?

L&N: Some of the best hotel service we've ever had. The concierge could not have been more accommodating. Our agent, Christine, even collaborated with Dreams Sands Cancun Resort & Spa about our anniversary, so we were surprised with a “Happy Anniversary” sign on our door and framed photos of our beloved dogs! There was even a “note” from the dogs, a nice souvenir bag, and a complimentary bottle of champagne.

BT: What benefits did you receive by your agent booking with Apple Vacations?

L&N: We LOVED that Christine recommended we travel with Apple Vacations! Our air and accommodations were sold to us as a great packaged deal and purchasing the recommended excursions along with the package was seamless and easy. You also can't beat the INCLUDED round-trip airport transportation with Apple Vacations! The clean, air-conditioned van was waiting for us upon arrival and our drivers were always so courteous.

BT: Would you recommend Apple Vacations and Dreams Sands Cancun Resort & Spa?

L&N: Absolutely! We could not have asked for a better experience.

RIVER CRUISING

Lyon and Provence with VIKING RIVER CRUISES

Lyon, France

Bonjour, mes amis! Prepare to be inspired by French art, history and food as you sail through Lyon and Provence with VIKING RIVER CRUISES. This 8-day river cruise along the Rhône River will include enrichment lectures, destination performances, visits to UNESCO World Heritage sites, all meals including regional specialties, plus beer, wine and soft drinks onboard with lunch and dinner.

Viking River Cruises includes an excursion at each port to help you truly experience the cities on your itinerary. Begin your cruise in Avignon where you'll visit the Palace of the Popes, home to seven popes between 1309 to 1377. In the Roman city of Arles, Viking will take you on a guided walking tour of Les Arènes, an ancient amphitheater, and Place de la République, which once hosted the ancient Roman Circus. Enjoy a relaxing stroll through Viviers to see the smallest cathedral in France, the 11th-century St. Vincent Cathedral, and Maison des Chevaliers, a historic home from the Renaissance period known as the Knight's House. Explore Vienne's 500-year-old Gothic Cathedral St. Maurice and wander through the Garden of Cybele's Roman remains. In Lyon, you'll be driven to see the Basilica of Notre Dame at the top of Fourvière Hill, followed by a visit to the city's famed Painted Houses. On your last full day, discover Beaujolais' wine country and sample various wines at a local cellar.

For a more personalized experience, you can choose optional shore excursions in each port. Attend a private painting class inspired by impressionist artists while in Arles, visit the legendary lavender fields of Provence, take a train ride in Tournon through the Doux Valley, or in Lyon, the "world capital of gastronomy," indulge in a handful of tasty treats including various chocolates and cheeses.

Brentwood Travel is proud to be a Platinum agency with Viking Cruises, and our President and CEO, Stephanie Turner, recently sailed with Viking River Cruises on the Platinum Circle Cruise. "Traveling in France on a Viking ship is a spectacular experience. Viking River Cruises knows how to provide a luxury travel experience at affordable prices that provide you with everything you could need or want on that special vacation. From their warm, caring professional staff to the excellent varied cuisine, to their interesting, personalized and informative shore excursions, this is the way to travel the interior of Europe. With less than 200 people on board each ship, this vacation is all about you."

When you travel, do you want to see things or do you want to actually experience them? As you sail with HURTIGRUTEN, you'll get to experience firsthand some of the most unique destinations and wildlife in the world! Hurtigruten is an expedition cruise line, which means smaller cruise vessels, less mainstream ports of call, adventurous itineraries and an emphasis on exploring the world rather than spending time on deck.

Hurtigruten has been sailing to some of the most remote and exciting locations on the planet for over 120 years. Imagine gliding a kayak through icy waters in Antarctica, getting up close with a colony of king penguins in South Georgia, admiring the Northern Lights in Svalbard, soaking in Greenland's natural hot springs, or cruising through the breathtaking fjords in Norway. Hurtigruten's expedition guides and lecturers have spent years understanding the terrain and wildlife in the destinations they visit to bring you a genuine and fully immersive exploration.

Why choose Hurtigruten? Cheryl Gatto, Brentwood Travel's Hurtigruten Director of Sales, reveals "We are perfect for lifelong learners, lovers of culture, wildlife and photography. For those who want an unpretentious, interactive, personal and relaxed experience with small ships taking you to unique ports of call, Hurtigruten offers truly authentic encounters. Our expedition team members ensure your vacation will provide a lifetime of memories filled with authentic and intimate involvement throughout your voyage."

Hurtigruten's fleet has 11 ships, each designed specifically for extreme conditions and extraordinary destinations. Later this year Hurtigruten will debut MS Roald Amundsen (and next year, MS Fridtjof Nansen), both Rolls-Royce designed, state-of-the-art vessels with completely new hybrid technology. These almost silent ships will be constructed in two phases – first MS Roald Amundsen will be equipped with an auxiliary electric engine, reducing CO2 emissions by 20%. Then in 2020, MS Fridtjof Nansen will be built with a full-fledged hybrid engine that can power the entire ship for longer periods of time and across greater distances.

The Inspiration of Alaska, the Luxury of CUNARD

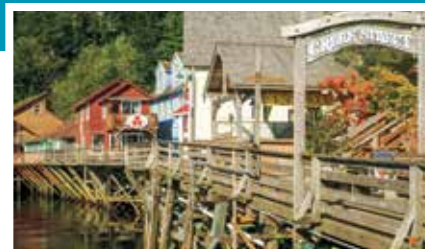

Alaska is considered a bucket list destination that many choose to experience by ship, as most of the “must-see” places are not easily accessible by land. If you’re looking to enjoy Alaska’s beauty in elegance, luxury and style then climb aboard Queen Elizabeth with CUNARD.

LEGENDARY JOURNEYS

In June 2020, Queen Elizabeth will begin her round-trip Vancouver voyages featuring many scenic ports, with an array of shore excursions to choose from. Your first full day is spent at sea cruising through the Inside Passage, viewing glaciers, forest-clad islands, and ice-carved fjords. In Anchorage, take the Denali Mountain and National Park Flightseeing Tour to be carried up the amazing Mount Denali. While visiting Ketchikan, be whisked away on the Misty Fjords Seaplane Exploration. Get up close and personal with Alaskan wildlife on the Birds, Bears and Barnacles Tour while in Sitka. You simply cannot go wrong as Cunard embraces each destination by creating once-in-a-lifetime visits.

WIDEN YOUR HORIZONS WHILE ON BOARD

Queen Elizabeth will elevate every moment you spend on board by providing you with insight about Alaska that you didn’t already know. Learn about Alaska’s glaciers, wildlife, and indigenous cultures during lectures and seminars from award-winning Insights speakers. Attend themed nights in the Queens Room and enjoy interactions with musicians, mushers, chefs and other locals. You’ll also have multiple inspired cuisine and local beers while taking in Alaska’s breathtaking scenery.

THE PERFECT SHIP FOR ALASKA

With views of glaciers in the distance, play a game of table tennis or croquet while on the Games Deck. Visit Midships Bar for live music while ordering from the extensive martini menu. Feel as if you’re celebrating a special occasion while dining at the Verandah or enjoy an elegant afternoon tea in the Queens Room. Relax during a day at sea at the Royal Spa and then spend your evening at the Royal Court Theatre.

Mediterranean Masterpiece

SEVEN SEAS CRUISES

Stroll through Barcelona's stunning streets.

Imagine sailing beneath pastel villages clinging to the sides of Mediterranean Sea cliffs, followed by a stroll through ancient cities like Vatican City without floods of other tourists. REGENT SEVEN SEAS CRUISES provides a Mediterranean experience that brings you closer to the sites you want to see. Not to mention, sailing with Regent means free business class air in all suite categories, making your trip to the Mediterranean even more luxurious and relaxing.

ENCHANTING EXPLORATIONS

In October 2019, Seven Seas Voyager will make her 10-night voyage from Athens to Barcelona, with a variety of shore excursions to choose from (many of which are included). Visit magnificent wonders like the Acropolis or the Parthenon before departing Athens (Piraeus). Join the Highlights of Lesbos Tour to explore a once major cultural center in antiquity in Mytilini (Lesbos). In Istanbul, take the Topaki and The Blue Mosque Tour to see where chariot races were held during the Roman period. Walk on the island and mystical birthplace of the God Apollo and Goddess Discover the Eternal City at the Vatican City and Rome Highlights Tour while in Rome. In Monte Carlo, experience medieval charm during the Scenic St. Paul De Vence Tour. Visit the beautiful countryside to savor a selection of wines paired with locally produced cheeses on the Aix-en-Provence Cheese and Wine Tour in Provence, and then finish your amazing voyage in one of Europe's most visually stunning cities, Barcelona.

A NEW WAY TO EXPERIENCE REGENT IN PORT

Regent has unveiled innovative shore excursion options designed to elevate luxury travelers' experiences while in port. Go Local Tours were created for the well-traveled guest (or anyone looking to uncover off-the-beaten-path experiences) to offer a more immersive way to engage with the destinations and cultures on your trip.

For a more intimate and personal engagement with your guides, Regent created Regent Choice Small Group Tours. This excursion option consists of no more than 16 guests and they're a great new option for travelers.

Russ V., a client of Group Travel Director Cathy Robinson, has sailed with Regent many times and loves the Regent Choice Small Group Tours. "We've had so many wonderful and memorable experiences that it's impossible to name a favorite. Private visits to homes of the rich and famous and exclusive cultural events in cities and countrysides are among the most memorable. The local guides selected by Regent are praiseworthy; they often move us to the head of the line at museum and gallery visits."

The New Wave of Vacation Travel

PRINCESS CRUISES

Personalized, effortless, innovative. PRINCESS CRUISES delivers all three and more by introducing the MedallionClass™ experience as well as building two entirely new, luxurious vessels from the ground up. Climb aboard, because it's time to discover the incredible possibilities of this entirely new and exclusive way to travel.

INTRODUCING MEDALLIONCLASS™

The Princess MedallionClass™ features cutting-edge technology to make the most of a traveler's vacation time. Amy Alford, Brentwood Travel's Princess Cruises Business Development Manager, explains "We are so pleased to present this next wave of travel with MedallionClass™. This amazing innovation offers the fastest way to an easy, personalized and smooth-sailing vacation all enabled by a free, quarter-sized wearable device, the OceanMedallion™. Our goal is to continue exceeding our guests' expectations with this user-friendly opportunity on board."

The innovative features of MedallionClass™ begin before you even set sail. With OceanReady™, guests can check-in to their cruise while at home to enjoy a hassle-free check-in process on embarkation day. Once on board, MedallionNet™ delivers the best Wi-Fi at sea to stay connected no matter where you are on the ship – send texts, post photos, video chat, even stream your favorite movies and music with ease!

With OceanNow™, your drinks will find YOU! Order drinks from your device and your wearable Medallion sends crew members directly to you, so you won't miss a moment of relaxation.

Finding your friends, family and way around the ship has never been easier than with OceanCompass™. This personal interactive navigator can guide you where you want to go and help you locate other Medallions right from your smart device or on portals throughout the ship.

You also have stateroom access with your Medallion, plus there's MedallionPay™, providing easy on board payments; OceanCasino™, where guests can wager real money on casino-style games anywhere on board; and with PlayOcean™ families can play games like trivia and ship-wide scavenger hunts together.

Built for MedallionClass™

Princess Cruises will debut Sky Princess in fall 2019 and Enchanted Princess in summer 2020, making them the first vessels built to deliver Princess MedallionClass™. Both ships will enhance the best of the Royal Class ships, and their features will

Experience 'The Celebrity Revolution' with Celebrity X Cruises®

Set sail to Ireland on board Celebrity Summit.

CELEBRITY CRUISES is at it again with another plan to transform the cruise industry. A more than $500-million refurbishment project has already begun and is turning heads with the complete revitalization of Celebrity Millennium and Celebrity Summit. Once finished, the entire Celebrity fleet will completely change the way cruisers experience the world.

CELEBRITY SUMMIT REVOLUTIONIZED

Every detail on board Celebrity Summit has been elevated and refined. A fully redesigned spa and casino, advanced technology across the ship, new staterooms with luxurious design concepts, and the addition of The Retreat Sundeck and The Retreat Lounge (both an exclusive suite class experience) has turned this already beautiful ship into a statement about modern luxury.

Celebrity Cruises has combined a home away from home feeling with a sense of luxury and harmony, and the final product is nothing short of amazing. "The cabins are so fresh and new! The Celebrity designers did an amazing job incorporating modern technology with pampered luxury within the design of these staterooms, they are absolutely stunning!" stated Brentwood Travel's Executive Vice-President, Stacey Acree, after sailing with Celebrity Cruises.

All staterooms now include Celebrity's eXhale bedding featuring luxurious Cashmere Mattresses, state-of-the-art bathrooms finishes, and all new lighting fixtures, creating a rival to even the world's best boutique hotels. The culinary experience on board has also been taken to an entirely new level. The Main Dining Room was beautifully redesigned with more seating and an eye-catching ceiling design; a guest favorite, Oceanview Café, now offers travelers an open design concept and an array of international delicacies; and a reimagined Sunset Bar features a variety of unique seating options perfect for alfresco dining or sipping cocktails with a view. With these new updates to Celebrity Summit, imagine sailing to Ireland with an entirely new level of modern luxury.

CELEBRITY SUMMIT SAILS TO IRELAND

In August 2020, Celebrity Summit will be making 14-day voyages from the U.S. to Ireland (or reverse). Departing from New Jersey, your journey will take you to walking trails within beautiful parks and vibrant gardens in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Next, discover the breathtaking coastal views, kayak and hike at Cabot Trail in Sydney, Nova Scotia; then experience the local hot springs in Qaqortoq, Greenland. Cruise through mountains reaching 4,000 feet within the dramatic Prins Christian Sund fjord; enjoy two days in Iceland's capital and largest city, Reykjavik; then on to Akureyri, best known for the thundering waterfalls, gurgling lava fields, and snow-capped mountains; and finish off your cruise in beautiful Dublin, Ireland.

Caribbean Sailings with Nieuw Statendam

Relax on Holland America Line's private island Half Moon Cay in the Bahamas

The Caribbean is calling, and HOLLAND AMERICA LINE welcomes you aboard to experience the best of this tropical destination. Holland America Line can take you to 50 different Caribbean ports with itineraries ranging from 7 to 25 days, and the best way to sail is on their newest ship, Nieuw Statendam!

Corporate and Leisure Travel Consultant Stevie Goeke with Holland America Line.

Nieuw Statendam debuted earlier this year and is sailing the Caribbean during her premier season. This ship is beautifully designed, with music and art as inspiration, and includes the Rolling Stone Rock Room, B.B. King's Blues Club, America's Test Kitchen (a hands-on cooking workshop), and specialty dining restaurants like Rudi's Sel de Mer and Grand Dutch Café.

Where should Nieuw Statendam take you in the Caribbean? Consider Oranjestad, Aruba, where you can snorkel to see the famous Antilla shipwreck, a relic of World War II. Visit Stingray City Sandbar to swim with stingrays at Georgetown, Grand Cayman. Or perhaps you'd prefer to sample coffee and cigars on a Food & Wine magazine excursion in Amber Cove, Dominican Republic. Discover Temple of the Frescos and El Castillo, both Mayan ruins in Cozumel, Mexico. Plus, all Nieuw Statendam Caribbean cruises will take you to Half Moon Cay, Holland America Line's private island in the Bahamas and the world's highest-rated private island experience.

Why sail the Caribbean with Holland America Line? They're intimate ships that are perfect for families and adults looking to get away. With a smaller ship size, you can be as close or distant from your travel companions as you wish. Families can choose to spend their time together on the ship, or kids ages 3-17 can spend time at Club HAL. This included activities program allows kids to be active and creative with other passengers their age. Not to mention, parents can have some time to themselves!

Brentwood Travel's Corporate and Leisure Travel Consultant, Stevie Goeke, sailed with Holland America Line and she cannot wait to sail with them again. "The attention to detail really impressed me – from the service on the Lido Deck for buffets, to the Main Dining Room during our dinners.

I was spoken to by my first name by every member of the staff that I met from day one. I loved the B.B. King Blues Club with the live band, and the many other entertainment options. I would highly recommend sailing with Holland America Line."

It's time to enjoy the crystal-clear waters of the Caribbean with a cool drink in hand. The team at Brentwood Travel is ready to get you there with HOLLAND AMERICA LINE! Contact our staff today!

Historical Immersion Cruises to Cuba

Havana, Cuba

Classic cars, iconic music, legendary nightlife and vibrant culture. There truly is nowhere in the world that compares to Cuba and no major cruise line will take you deeper into Cuban roots than ROYAL CARIBBEAN. Get more than just a glimpse of Cuba on board Empress of the Seas with three one-of-a-kind ports to explore – Cienfuegos, Santiago de Cuba and, of course, Havana.

Depart from Miami and you will soon arrive to shores that few have explored on Royal Caribbean's most adventurous ship sailing Cuba – Empress of the Seas. On 4- to 8-night itineraries (some featuring overnight stops) there'll be an endless amount of activities to indulge in.

First arrive to the heart and soul of Cuba, Havana. Take part in the Havana Bucket List Experience where you'll have a chance to sample Cuban food, rum and cigars after touring Morro Castle of Christ. Later that evening, get lost in the rhythm and romance of Havana while enjoying live Afro-Cuban jazz tunes by a local band. In the vibrant city of Cienfuegos, join the all-day Jagua Fortress and City Highlights tour taking you from the fortified beauty of Jagua castle to the fresco-laden Tomas Terry Theatre, with enough time to enjoy Cuban cuisine and shopping along the way. Last, but certainly not least, is Cuba's culture capital of Santiago De Cuba. Unlock memories of the Cuban Revolution with the Birthplace of the Revolution Tour, featuring stops at the City Curator's Office, the Moncada Museum, San Juan Hill and Santa Ifigenia Cemetery.

On Empress of the Seas, the memory making will begin before you even arrive in port. From fascinating Cuban-inspired programming and Sunday brunch Cuban favorites, to showing off your salsa moves at Boleros Lounge, you'll have a taste of Cuba every minute of your voyage.

Senior Travel Consultant Ann Fendelman sailed to Cuba with her son on Royal Caribbean and had nothing but wonderful things to say. "When we docked in Havana, I was delighted to see a red 1955 Chevy convertible waiting for us with a private driver and all. We could not believe all the classic cars that we saw! One evening we went to the Tropicana Nightclub, which opened in 1939. It reminded me of The Muny in St. Louis with a beautiful outdoor setting featuring tiers of tables and the stage below. Waiters in tuxedos were serving dinner and the show had a lot of dancing and singing. I can't wait to go back and spend more time there!"

Aloha, Pride of America!

Pride of America cruising past the Napali Coast.

Get ready to pull out your grass skirts and flower leis because NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE wants to take you on Pride of America, the only cruise ship that exclusively sails the Hawaiian Islands year-round. No need to worry about spending several days at sea on another cruise line just to get to Hawaii! Pride of America is the only U.S. registered ocean cruise ship starting and ending in Honolulu, giving you more time to explore the islands. On a 7-night cruise you'll spend 100 hours in ports that include Oahu, the Big Island (Kona), Maui and Kauai (both of which include overnight stays), plus enjoy an afternoon cruise along the breathtaking Napali Coast.

There'll be so much time to explore the Islands that you can fill your days with a variety of activities. As you start your journey in Honolulu, remember the servicemen from World War II during a visit to the historic Pearl Harbor. Go on a Molokini Zodiac Turtle Snorkel off Maui's south shore where you'll find coral reefs, tropical fish and sea turtles. Try out the Ultimate Hilo Coast to explore Hilo's powerful waterfalls, gorgeous valleys and lush rainforests. Bury your toes in the black sand beaches on a Kona Black Sand Beach Hike. Experience authentic Hawaiian dining and culture at the Luau Kalamaku with graceful hula and traditional fire dances.

With so much to see on land, don't forget this is still a cruise on an amazing ship. There are plenty of activities on board Pride of America, too! Choose from 15 restaurants that offer Freestyle Dining (no fixed dining times, pre-assigned seating or dress codes), plus 12 bars and lounges for you to sit back and relax. Stroll through multiple shops on board or indulge in a little massage therapy at the Mandara Spa®. If you're looking to get more sun, spend some time sunbathing at the Oasis or Miami-inspired South Beach Pool.

Brentwood Travel's Senior Travel Consultant Dianna Paridon sailed with a group on Pride of America and she absolutely loved it. "It's the only ship that sails exclusively between the islands, giving you more time to spend exploring. With multiple overnight stays and the option to add pre- and post-tours in Honolulu, it's really a wonderful way to experience Hawaii."

Why wait? Contact Brentwood Travel to book your NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE sailing to Hawaii aboard Pride of America!
