OUR MEMORABLE CRUISE ON THE DANUBE

By Sue Koritz, Marketing Director, Brentwood Travel

Recently, my husband Mark and I experienced the romance, history and beauty of the “Blue Danube” as we cruised this legendary area with Viking River Cruises.

Our journey began in Budapest, Hungary...a city (technically, two cities on either side of the Danube) that we were unprepared to love as much as we did. Taking advantage of Viking’s pre-cruise package gave us an extra two days and nights in the charming

Castle District. We visited the iconic Parliament building, explored the three-story Central Market and so much more. One memorable stop on our tour was the Great Synagogue (aka the Central Synagogue) on Dohány Street, which is the largest synagogue of Europe and the second largest one in the world. Also on that site are the Central Synagogue Jewish Museum and the Raul Wallenberg Memorial Park, home to the Emanuel Tree Memorial dedicated to Hungarian Jews killed during the Holocaust.

The first official night of the cruise was spent onboard a beautiful Viking longship, docked in downtown Budapest. The next morning we enjoyed a leisurely cruise to Vienna, where we toured the city... such fun seeing the home of the famed Lipizzaner stallions! While in Vienna, you must visit the exquisite Schönbrunn Palace, a palatial complex that is a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage site. A special Viking treat was an evening at the opera – a private performance of “The Marriage of Figaro,” where we met the cast members.

Cruising upriver took us through the beautiful Wachau Valley, blanketed with vineyards and dotted by colorful villages. Another highlight for us was the Melk Abbey, a massive baroque Benedictine monastery with beautiful ceiling paintings and more than 90,000 volumes and rare manuscripts.

We really enjoyed Passau, Germany – great gift-shopping – even though I got separated from our group (too much photo taking) and followed my map on my own walking tour around Old Town, talking to friendly locals as I found my way to our meeting spot... actually a lot of fun!

On our walking tour of Regensburg, one of Europe’s best-preserved medieval cities, we saw impressive 13th and 14th century church spires, towers and homes. One optional tour I urge you to take is a visit to the BMW factory. It is a fascinating behind-the-scenes look at a combination of robotics and “worker-friendly” assembly lines.

The last stop on our cruise was Nuremberg. While our day there was more sobering, it was an eye-opening look at history we only thought we

CRUISING THROUGH FRANCE

Few regions in Europe are as scenic and charming as the heart of France, and a river cruise is the best way to experience it. Follow the Rhône and Saone rivers as they wind through Burgundy and Provence. We suggest discovering this countryside that inspired the art of French masters such as Van Gogh, Cézanne and Gauguin on a UNI WORLD BOUTIQUE RIVER CRUISE voyage.

Begin your journey in Avignon, a UNESCO World Heritage site. The Palais des Papes (Palace of the Popes) is one of the largest and most important examples of Gothic architecture in Europe. During the 14th century, this fortress and palace was the seat of Western Christianity. Today, the Palais is one of the 10 most visited attractions in France with 650,000 visitors per year.

You won't want to miss the Pont du Gard, an ancient Roman aqueduct. It is the highest elevated Roman aqueduct and one of the best preserved, becoming a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1985. From May to September, Uniworld offers guided kayak tours that go underneath the Pont du Gard. Next stop, Viviers! In this small walled city full of medieval character and charm you'll explore the 12th-century Cathedral of St. Vincent, France's smallest cathedral, with its display of Gobelin tapestries.

In Tournon, cross over the suspension bridge to Tain l'Hermitage to taste Côtes du Rhône wines. Or, take a guided hike through the Hermitage vineyards and taste distinctive local wines.

In Macon, learn about Burgundy's celebrated wines at the Hospices de Beaune, where the monks have been making and selling wine to support their charitable work since the 15th century.

Lyon has developed a reputation as a major center of French cuisine. Enjoy a guided tour of Les Halles, Lyon's world-famous food market, and check out an array of food stalls, bars and restaurants. During a tour of the Quartier Saint-Jean, you'll meet an artisan who specializes in silk weaving.

THE CALL OF THE EXOTIC

One of the most popular regions for travel these days is the Far East. Some even say, “Asia is the new Europe!” China is one of the most visited destinations in the world, a country of contrasts where skyscrapers rise above ancient temples. Over the past three decades, change has been a constant for Vietnam and Cambodia as they forge paths to the future while maintaining ancient traditions. OCEANIA CRUISES offers you a host of exciting and unique journeys to the Far East, including one called “Pagodas and Palaces.”

From historic temples that sit in the shadows of skyscrapers, to modern condos backing up to the jungle, Singapore is famous for its incredible contrasts. Get up close and personal with orangutans and Malaysian flying foxes at the Singapore Zoo, full of naturalistic enclosures, free roaming animals and interactive attractions. At the Kranji Memorial, and Changi Chapel and Memorial, stop to honor those who lost their lives here during World War II.

Bangkok, Thailand surrounds you with fabulous golden temples and palaces. The Emerald Buddha at Wat Phra Kaew has an outfit for every season of the year, and at the start of each new season the King presides over a ceremony where the outfit is changed! Fans of the “The King and I” will thrill at the Royal Palace, setting of the true story of Anna and the King of Siam. It is a massive complex of carved and gilded buildings, still used today by the Thai royal family.

Stroll the wide boulevards of Saigon, resplendent with stately trees and lovely buildings in the French colonial style. Take a local pedicab through the bustling streets, and visit the vibrant markets, Chinatown and the Cu Chi tunnels. Tour the Reunification Palace, featured in the musical “Miss Saigon.” You’ll certainly enjoy the Vietnamese cuisine, a unique blend of savory and sweet.

In cosmopolitan Hong Kong, modern high-rise buildings stand beside street markets and temples. Your visit should include Victoria Peak and the Man Mo Temple. Save extra room in your suitcase for the bargains you’ll discover.

Oceania Cruises is known for their intimate, luxurious ships, gourmet cuisine and fine wines, exceptional service and port-intensive itineraries. Please call Brentwood Travel today to learn about all of OCEANIA CRUISES’ voyages to the Far East.

America's Great Land

In Alaska, our 49th state, every day offers an unforgettable memory: a mother moose and calf, glaciers and mountains, unique Alaska Native cultures, and Gold Rush days. You can sample all of this and more on an Alaska cruise or cruisetour next summer.

Ketchikan, Alaska's "First City," began as a native fishing camp. The name comes from a Tlingit phrase meaning "eagle with spread-out wings." The world-famous colorful totem poles at Totem Bight State Park each tell their own story about Native Alaskan culture. Visit the Alaska Rainforest Sanctuary to see a native master carver at work.

Go for the gold in Skagway! This town was the gateway to the goldfields for all the people flocking to the Yukon with the hope of striking it rich. One of their main attractions today is Alaska's state sport – dog sledding! Meet professional mushers and their canine friends, and even take a ride on a custom, wheeled dog cart pulled by a team of Alaskan huskies!

Juneau, Alaska's capital, is a picturesque town with a charming personality. Stroll its winding downtown streets, filled with coffee shops, galleries and seafood restaurants.

Among the most awesome sights in Alaska are massive glaciers 10 or more stories high. As a glacier "calves," a chunk of ice splits off and crashes into the sea, sounding like thunder. This is always a highlight of any Alaska cruise. Along with the majestic scenery, Alaska's abundance of wildlife makes for an awesome experience. Eagles and seabirds soaring through the sky, salmon leaping from bays and rivers, maybe even a bear foraging on a rocky beach.

For a truly immersive experience, expand your visit with a land tour into Alaska's best wilderness destinations...Denali National Park, Glacier Bay National Park or the Kenai Peninsula.

Voted "Best Cruise Line in Alaska" in 2015, PRINCESS CRUISES offers a range of enriching cruise options to see the Great Land's glaciers, wildlife and national parks from the perspective of spectacular ships, exclusive rail service and Princess-owned wilderness lodges. Let the Alaska experts at Brentwood Travel plan your next vacation to one of the most awesome destinations in the United States.

No other body of water holds mystery and romance quite like the Mediterranean Sea. Travel to the lands of emperors, pharaohs, gods and goddesses... discover what secrets they reveal. Did the lost city of Atlantis exist and, if so, where? Why didn't the people of Pompeii flee long before the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius? What was life really like in the medieval castles dotting the coastline of France?

A must-see historical sight is the partially buried city of Pompeii, Italy. Pompeii was destroyed and completely buried during a two-day catastrophic eruption of Mount Vesuvius in the year AD 79. For nearly 1,700 years, the city remained buried under several feet of ash and pumice, but today the ruins of Pompeii come alive as you explore the shops and homes literally frozen in time.

Peek into mysteries of the past in Kotor, located on the coast of Montenegro.

THE MYSTERIOUS MEDITERRANEAN

A UNESCO World Heritage site, Kotor is steeped in tradition and history. The old walled city, built between the 12th and 14th centuries, is filled with medieval architecture. Kotor is home to a fascinating Maritime Museum, which explores local seafaring history.

Venice makes you believe in fairy tales. Cars are banned, so the only way to get around the 1,500-year-old city is by foot or by water. Venice is filled with palaces and art, fine shopping and excellent food. Relax in Piazza San Marco (St. Mark's Square), visit the basilicas, drink a Bellini at Harry's Bar, wander the alleyways and bridges, and take a gondola ride on the Grand Canal.

The very mention of Rome conjures images of history, mystery and beauty. St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel are at the top of the list, of course. Other landmarks not to miss include the Trevi Fountain, the Colosseum, and Aventine Hill with a grand view of the remains of the Imperial Palaces, and the Circus Maximus.

For an unforgettable Mediterranean cruise, look to REGENT SEVEN SEAS CRUISES, offering the finest in luxury and value. With Regent, "It's All Included" – unlimited shore excursions, prepaid gratuities, unlimited beverages, specialty restaurant dining and so knew. We saw Zeppelin Field, the former Nazi parade grounds, and the Palace of Justice. We also opted for an unforgettable tour of the World War II Museum, a fascinating interactive experience using an audio guide that I highly recommend.

A big part of traveling is wonderful food, and we had some great culinary experiences. Recommendations: historical Wurkstuchl of Regensburg, the oldest sausage tavern of the world (bring back a jar of homemade sweet mustard); Figlmüller in Vienna, serving up the most delicious Frisbee-sized schnitzel you've ever seen or eaten (take a friend to share it with); Strudel House on the Pest side of Budapest, where you can watch them hand make mouth-watering savory and sweet strudels. Some of our finest meals were onboard our Viking ship. They featured regional cuisine that brought our destinations to life, a variety of menu selections at every meal and an extensive wine list. Desserts were artistic and delicious, and the service was always impeccable.

What's it like on a Viking ship? Fabulous! Spacious and light, understated but elegant, indoor and outdoor dining, reminiscent of a small hotel. In our beautiful, roomy stateroom we enjoyed heated floors, steam-free mirrors and large fluffy towels in the bathroom, European linens, plenty of storage space, and bottled water replenished daily. Consider booking a veranda...you'll love it! The entire Viking crew was outstanding, getting to know us and our preferences right away.

Viking's shore excursions were first rate. We were taken to all of the most important historical sites either on walking tours or by spacious, comfortable Viking-owned buses. All of their guides are local English-speaking experts who brought us closer to the history and culture of our destinations.

Brentwood Travel is THE place to go when considering a Viking River Cruises journey on the Danube or any other river in Europe, Russia, China & Southeast Asia or Egypt. We do Viking BEST!

THE AMAZING GALAPAGOS

A trip to the Galapagos Islands is like visiting the earth before there were people. After exploring the Galapagos in 1859, Charles Darwin published his theory of evolution in the classic "On the Origin of Species." Take a look at the example of an amazing journey to the Galapagos.

Let's begin in Baltra, at the region's main airport. During World War II, Baltra served as a U.S. military base protecting the Panama Canal from enemy attack. Then head over to Daphne Island to see pelicans, blue footed boobies, sea lions and tropical birds.

At Gardner Bay, while you're swimming, snorkeling or relaxing on the long, white sand beach, keep an eye out for sea turtles, rays, and maybe even a white-tip reef shark! Check out the green-hued sand where you land on Floreana Island. Experienced snorkelers can go on a deep-water expedition at nearby Champion Island. From there, head to Post Office Bay where from 1793 whalers and other fishermen could leave letters to be picked up by outbound ships. Feel free to throw your postcards and letters in there, as this early post office is still operational.

Prehistoric Punta Moreno, located between two volcanoes, Sierra Negra and Cerro Azul, is covered in jet-black lava. Walk to the edge of the lava and look straight down into the crystal clear pools, where you can spy the occasional green sea turtle, white-tipped reef sharks and pufferfish.

At Puerto Ayora, the main population center of the islands, visit the National Park Service tortoise breeding center and the Charles Darwin Research Station. Hop on the bus to the Highlands to observe giant tortoises in the wild...they are enchanting.

This is a wonderful destination for anyone looking for something fascinating, unusual, adventurous, and relaxing. It's great for a family experience. One of our favorite ways to explore the Galapagos is by ship aboard the Celebrity Xpedition, a 96-guest mega-yacht. Your all-inclusive price covers pre-/post-cruise hotel stays in Quito, cruise accommodations,
